THE MAGIC HORSE : Once upon a time there lived a Persian king. He was very fond of horses. A Horse merchant came to the king and showed his horse. He said that it was not an ordinary horse. By pressing a button, the horse carried its rider to the other side of the world. Suddenly the prince leapt on the saddle of the horse and pressed the button, Within minutes the horse and the prince disappeared and reached a glorious palace. The prince saw a beautiful princess, Moon fairy sleeping she was the daughter of king of Bengal .The prince took the princess and flew away on the magic horse and reached his home, But the horse merchant forcefully took the princess and flew to the kingdom of Kashmir. The princess began to cry and behave like a rebellion's girl. All Vaidya's of the kingdom were called to cure her. Finally the prince came as a Vaidya and rescued the princess. They flew to the kingdom and lived happily ever after. The students of Grade 2 enjoyed reading the story as they celebrated Independence day by making amazing crafts to remember the day!
