Book Buzz

Book review and movie review of grade 3.

The students of grade 3 had a great time exploring a variety of stories from the library, such as Monster Bugs, The Little Mermaid, The True Story of Pocahontas, The Trojan Horse, and more. They not only enjoyed reading these books but also wrote beautiful book reviews, complete with drawings of their favorite characters. Following their reading, they watched a movie adaptation of one of the stories and wrote reviews based on their viewing experience. Their reviews compared the movie to the book, highlighted their favorite scenes, and included their thoughts on how well the movie captured the essence of the book. Each review was paired with a drawing of a character from the story, reflecting their artistic touch and personal connection to the tale.

Beyond Classroom

09/09/2024- Mera Pyara Parivar:

Students stuck a picture of their family on a sheet of paper and wrote five lines about it. This activity helped them enhance their writing skills by encouraging them to describe their family members, their relationships, and special moments they shared. Through this exercise, students practiced organizing their thoughts and expressing them clearly, making their writing more personal and engaging.

10/09/2024-Sulekh Pratiyogita: For the writing competition held for the students of grade 3, each student was tasked with copying a given paragraph neatly onto an A4 sheet of paper. The competition aimed to enhance their handwriting skills by encouraging precision in letter formation, spacing, and overall presentation.

Students carefully transcribed the paragraph, paying attention to the clarity of their writing and the consistency of their letters. This exercise not only fostered their ability to write neatly but also helped them develop greater control over their penmanship. The competition provided an opportunity for students to showcase their improvement and dedication to maintaining clear and attractive handwriting, which is a valuable skill for their academic development.

Parent Support

Dear Parents,

Parenting Your School-Age Child

What You Can Do

Model the behavior you want to see. Your children are watching and learning from you. Meet your responsibilities, follow house rules, and communicate with respect.

- Make a few important rules and enforce them every time. Remember, children want freedom, so give them choices in smaller matters (e.g., clothing, room decorations).
- Talk to children about what you expect. Post rules and routines where everyone can see them. Fewer “grey areas” mean less to argue about.
- Support their growing bodies. Children this age still need nutritious meals (especially breakfast) and 10 hours of sleep each night.
- Limit time spent watching TV, playing video games, or using the computer. Monitor Internet use for safety and encourage your children to participate in hobbies and sports.
- Be involved with your children’s school. Talk to their teachers and attend parents’ night and school conferences. Show that school is important to you by providing a quiet space for homework, volunteering in your child’s school, and celebrating your child’s hard work.
- Offer support and understanding when your child has problems with peers. Explore ways to resolve conflicts, but do not interfere. If your child is being bullied at school, alert school staff and work with them to keep your child safe.
- Don’t wait for your children to learn from peers. Educate yourself and talk to your children about your values. Help them practice ways to resist peer pressure.

Remember: Talk to your children and listen to what they have to say. School age children may sometimes act like they don’t care what their parents say, but they still want your love, attention, and guidance!
